Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith for orders the Canarese Correspondence with the Nuzrai Officer's Yadi no: 14/200 dated 25th Ultimo recommending that an advance of Rs 67-11-7 may be paid every month till the end of February 1893 to the temple at Nanjangud from the Provincial Revenues, being the excess amount required to meet the additional outlay under the head of "Diperadhane" and stating that this amount will be duly adjusted against Kanike amount daily collected in the temple. This recommendation is apparently based on the order of Government in No: 459/60 of 9th February 92 in which advances from Provincial Funds were ordered for paying the Padithara allowances to the temple Servants at Nanjangud subject to their reimbursement from Savings. But I am not sure that there is the urgency in the present proposal as there was in the other. The object of the proposal is to provide for as much light in the temple as was customary, which is not otherwise possible owing to high prices. But no one will seriously suffer or be inconvenienced by the proposal being negatived.

With reference to the order of the Huzrai Officer to the Nanjangud Amildar intimating that the Contract has been taken for one year for the Supply of Articles to the temple, I beg to state that the Huzrai Officer does not appear to have used wise discretion in so doing the Contract must have been affected by the prevailing high prices of articles.

I have the honor to be Sir
Your most Obedient Servant.

Letter No. 129 dated 6th May 1892 from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, forwarding for orders Canarese Correspondence ending with the Amildar Officer's yadi No. 11/200 dated 25th April 1892 recommending that an advance of Rupees 67-4-7 may be paid every month till the end of February 1893 to the Sri = Kanteswaraswamy temple at Nanjangud from the Provincial Revenues to meet the excess amount of expenditure that may be incurred for Deeparadhane.

Order thereon No. [illegible]

Dated (Camp) Mysore 14th June 1892.

Government decline to accord Sanction to an advance of Rs 67-4-7 per mensem from the Provincial Revenues on account of Deeparadhane which should be conducted Conducted within the sanctioned amount.

2. It appears from the Vernacular papers that the Shanbhag of Nanjangud has spent certain amount in excess of the sanctioned scale for the parvadhane and other services. This is highly irregular ~~and they not sent well for the Supervision of the District Divisional officer~~. If the Shanbhag has spent any portion of the Temple funds in excess of the sanctioned allotment he should be personally held responsible for the same.

3. The Amani officer does not appear to have used his discretion properly in giving the Contract for one year in this season of high prices for the supply of articles to the Temple — but as the Contract has already been given it will be allotment for rice, oil &c should on no account be exceeded.
